Valedictory Program—A Course in Life Skills

Date:14-10-2023

A Valedictory program has been conducted on 13-10-2023 to commemorate the 45 days' "A Course in Life Skills" in the seminar hall of the college. The convener of the course A.Lakshmi Rangamma, Assistant Professor of English, inaugurated the programme by appraising the participants for their active participation and zeal to learn. The faculty of English department congratulated the participants and shared their opinions on the students' commitment and motivated them to participate in many such events.

The principal of the college lauded the commitment shown by the participants and the faculty, and assured all support to organize many more courses for the all-round development of the students in coming days.

The chief guest of the programme Dr. C. Somasekhara Reddy, the Chairman of the institution in his inspirational speech stressed the necessity of enhancing the life skills to compete in the cut throat competitive world. He hailed the students' efforts and enthusiasm in learning life skills and suggested the students to practically apply the learned skills in their careers. He appreciated the department of English faculty for taking initiative and in implementing the course for the welfare of the students.

A few participant students shared their experiences of the course and expressed their sincere gratitude to the management, the principal and the teaching faculty as they gained a lot of confidence and helped them to enhance their skills through this course.

The convener of the course A. Lakshmi Rangamma proposed the vote of thanks and concluded the programme with the National anthem.

Report on Debate Competition

The department of English has taken initiative to conduct a "Debate Competition" among students to enhance communication and soft skills. Debate competition ran towards entire semester. The principal of the institution Dr. Y. Madhusudhana Reddy commended the faculty and the students who participated in the competition and said the objectives of conducting these competitions in detail. The Vice Chairman of the institution Sri C. Chakradhara Reddy graced the occasion and with his motivational speech enthralled the audience on mentioning a few advices about life skills. The students were instructed by the chief guest to participate in competitions such as Debate and Group Discussion.

Five hundred students from different streams of the courses participated in the competition. The students were divided into fifty six groups and various topics were given for each group. A few students were given charge to act as moderators and for each competition three faculty members from different departments were invited to judge the competitions. As expected, the students competed with confidence and expressed their opinions on the topics in a detailed manner. The prizes and the certificates were issued to the winners by the chief guest Sri C. Chakradhara Reddy.

The program concluded on proposing vote of thanks by A.LAKSHMI RANGAMMA, Lecturer in English.
